THE FOX HUNT.

The following is a scene from "Creelan's Panorama," an incomplete manuscript poem, by R. L. Perkins.

A youth arose in early morn,
Mounted his steed and blew his horn;
Issuing from their kennels came
The yelping hounds, a pack of fame,
For every neighbor praised the race
For skill and power in the chase.
Six hounds there were, a noble pack
As ever saw or smelt a track.
Through lanes and fields, at rapid speed
Went youth and hounds and fiery steed.
They paused not till at length reached the ground,
Where foxes nightly prance around;
Along the meadow's margin stood,
A plot of thickly shaded wood;
There was a pause, a whistle low,
And each hound had his leave to go.
With heads all raised, they snuffed the wind,
Then circling off their heads would bend
Close to the earth, thus here and there
They scoured the meadows every where.
Few moments pass ere Jowler's yelp
Brings all the pack unto his help—
A minute more and in full cry
They bid the meadow field good by,
And fox and hounds and youth and steed
Dash through the woods at topmost speed.
Aha! ha ay, o'er hill and dale
'Twas hue the coming of the gale
When from afar we catch the sound,
That fills the air and jars the ground.
The neighbors the excitement share
Their horses from the harness tear,
And mounting speed along the way,
To join the excitement of the day
The shouting men and yelping hounds
Produce a roar of blending sounds,
The horses move with rapid tread,
With panting sides and nostrils spread;
They seem to feel the wild delight
That doth their masters' mind excite.
All eager in the chase, each eye
Wishes to see the victim die.

* * * * * *

There was a pause—a painful pause,
For every man knew well the cause;
The hounds had overran the track;
A dodging fox confused the pack:
Horses and men in silence stood,
While hounds we e searching field and woods,
Hark! Gowler yelps—the track! the track!
The fox has turned, is going back!
Two miles away they all had come,
To mine again all mustered;
Cheering and shouting on they sped,
Our youthful hero was ahead
How de are on the victim gaining,
Now and then a sight obtaining:
More frequent yell, more frequent shout
Augurs the race will soon be out.

* * * * * *

Another pause—they gather 'round
A plot of bush and briery ground,
The game is here! the youth exclaims,
Concealed amid the tangled vines;
The hounds in circles scent the ground,
Resolved the victim shall be found.
Horses and men surround the place
To see the death and end the race—
Hark! there's a cry—the like a child
When seized with sudden terror wild;
All rush together at the place,—
The fox is dead—here ends the race.

RESUSCITATION OF KRIEL, THE WIFE MURDERER.

It is well known that the unfortunate Kriel, who suffered death—or was supposed to have done so—last Friday, in Louisville, Ky., went to his doom, grim, implacable, and unnaturally firm. The papers of that city say:

When the rope that held the trap was severed and the body fell, it was the subject of remark that the closed hands and position of the legs and feet remained entirely unchanged, showing a tremendous exercise of will and control of nerve. The neck was not broken, neither was the rope drawn so closely about the man's neck that its mark could be distinguished, nor was the skin chafed a particle.

Gen. Whittaker, who was present at the execution by request of the prisoner, and who examined the body as it hung, declared in the hearing of those in the vicinity of the scaffold that pulsation in the carotid arteries of the neck was discernible after the jail surgeon and his assistants declared life extinct. No one can question the General's judgment and discretion, and when he placed his fingers on the arteries and declared there was circulation still discernible, in opposition to the opinion of the medical practitioners beside him, many felt that there might be grounds for the apprehension that the criminal would evade death.

The circumstances favoring this remarkable story are strong and closely connected. After hanging some minutes, Kriel's body was placed in the coffin. The limbs remained flexible, the hands opened with the least persuasion, and were crossed on his bosom. The eyes that stared half open when black cap was withdrawn, remained closed after the slight touch upon them, and the face assumed an appearance of mobility and rest.

The red flushing in the cheeks came back to a certain extent, and the dark coloring on the neck, under the knotted rope, partially disappeared. The short time that elapsed between his being placed in the coffin and being driven away was also a subject of remark.

No one seemed to have any charge of the body, and it was driven away in a lonely hearse to the vault at the cemetery. At night the body was carried off by a reckless class of students and an eager experimentalist

The galvanic battery was applied, and in less than fifteen minutes the warm blood commenced to course through the chilled body, and at last the eyes were opened. The students stood appalled and could hardly realize the extent of the demonstration before them. One of them spoke to Kriel, asking him, "Are you sensible?" The eyes answered expressively, and the lips opened ineffectually, for no speech came forth. Stimulants were poured down the throat of the revived criminal, and in less than one hour after he had been placed in the surgery, Kriel sat up and asked them, "What have you done? Am, I alive?"

The consternation and yet the professional delight of the spectators was loudly expressed.

The experiment of a reckless class of students and an able experimentalist had results in the resuscitation of a man who had been hung a short time previous.—Steps were immediately taken to save the life of the wretched man. Justice had been satisfied by the public execution, though life returned. Why should they deliver up what had so providentially and wonderfully been restored,

None of Kriel's personal friends were notified. Strangers disguised him, furnished him with mans and by daylight a man, weak and tottering, but firm and immovable in his demeanor, was last seen by a watchful, silent friend, who kept near him on the train leaving Seymour, Ind., on his way to an unknown, but it is to be hoped better future.

People have quit asking each other when they meet on the street, "How is your health?" or "How do you do?" The new salutation is, "What are you running for?"

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practically, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired object has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quality of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find peace and use in every comely no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation durning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the back ward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand to the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles south of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr P. J Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a log 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. ALLISON PARTIN,

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 6 miles South of Raleigh.

FLORIDA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

If two are alike, why should not States resemble each other, also? The two States of North Carolina and Florida are certainly alike in one respect, they are alike cursed with Littlefield and the Ring. They are running the same machinery and are "put through" by the same engineer. Littlefield and the Ring bought a railroad in Florida, they are trying to buy the railroads of North Carolina; they lobbied through diverse bills for railroads to be built with State bonds, in Florida and in North Carolina.—In this State Littlefield and the Ring, against the remonstrances of all tax payers, put through railroad bills without number; the bonds have been applied to personal and corrupt uses, and now they are utterly worthless. Keeping pace with Florida, North Carolina must be made to sell her railroads and canals, because her bonds are no longer saleable in the hands of swindlers and robbers. There are, wonderful to tell! men of character and standing engaged in it. We mean by "character and standing," that they are so regarded; they have never been convicted, like Stephens.

These gentlemen must look out, we shall not sit silent and see our railroads and canals sold, after the manner of Florida, to enrich the very men who sold, or had sold, the Florida railroad, that they might purchase it.

We declare that the member who votes, at this juncture, to sell the property of the State, should be looked upon with suspicion; he should be looked upon as a Florida bird, ready and willing to be caught. We suppose some few honest members of the Florida Legislature may have voted for the Florida Roads and the sale of Florida Roads, but with the Florida lights and swindles before them, how can our members vote for the sale of the North Carolina Roads and canals when the very same men are engaged in urging the sale? We think we can name the men who will be for the sale. In the Senate, Calcius Stephens, and kildee Lassiter and cousin Phil, and in the House, Sinclair, Cuffy Mayo, and generally all members of either House who voted against summoning Littlefield and Swepson, by telegram, to appear before the investigation Committee.

If there be any member of the Legislature who now thinks there was not fraud in the location of the Penitentiary on Deep River, we have not heard of him.

We would put down the Penitentiary Committee as favoring the sale of the State's Railroad and Canal property, because they have nothing to loose by advocating it.—The purchase of 8 000 acres of pine barren land from twelve to fourteen miles from the Penitentiary site, marks them as not only ready to buy, but ready to be sold. We think Kildee Lassiter might be induced to sell the Capitol or dodge a vote on it, and not suffer in public estimation more than he and his Committee did in locating the Penitentiary. Florida is on "all fours" with North Carolina, as Chief Justice Pearson would say, except in this, North Carolina has not yet sold a Railroad to the Ring, and Florida has.

A citizen of Lexington, reading in the SENTINEL an account of the Blalock murder, where the forehead had been mashed and the throat cut from ear to ear, declared to us it was the same men who had murdered the old man guarding the bridge at Lexington two weeks before, for his forehead was mashed and the throat cut in the same way. Bob Gun now on trial at Orange Court, confesses to having committed both murders!

Sell the North Carolina Railroad and the evidence of Littlefield and the Ring in robbing two States is stronger than it was against Bob Gun's murdering the two men.

The marks and acts of the second murder was so like the first, that it was apparent the same hand must have accomplished both; sell the North Carolina Road, and the marks and acts of the North Carolina Legislature will be so like Florida that no man, with eyes, can fail to recognize Littlefield and the Ring in both.

SO WE GO!

The State Treasury bankrupt—the counties in debt and unable to pay, and in many cases having their jails and Court Houses sold under execution—many of the counties asking leave to issue bonds which must be met hereafter—the credit of the State glimmering like a wasted lamp in the socket—the legislators undoing what they have already done, at seven dollars a day—the work cut out by the Code Commission just handed in, which will take at least six weeks to consider properly all these things staring us in the face, and yet, right under the nose of the Legislature, we see day after day, swarms of laborers on the Capitol Square, fooling about, digging up grass and raking and leveling the ground, at the rate of from two to three thousand dollars a year! So we go!

Parties to "keep" the Capitol—Friday Jones to guard the Capitol—Solomon Bragg and his battalion to work the Capitol grass lot—Henry Hunter to ring the Capitol bell, hourly, to let the people in Cherokee and Currituck (who help to pay,) know what time of night it is!—All these important personages getting important salaries for doing this important work!

We tell the people of North Carolina—those who have the taxes to raise to pay for all this fine work, that these things are going on every day, right under the eyes and noses of their representatives whom they have sent here to guard their interests—they have but to look out at the windows of the Capitol to see it all.

SOUTHERN BONDS IN NEW YORK.

The Wall Street Journal, a paper of character, devoted to the subject of Banks, Finance &c., has the following in its issue of the 29th Jan., which possesses an interest for Southern as well as Northern readers. We commend its perusal to the financial Solomons of our own State.

Southern State Bonds continue slow, excepting in Tennessee's and Missouri's which show some activity.

The unprincipled and reckless manner in which the credit of the Southern States is being manipulated, ought to fire every correct thinking Northern capitalist, with alarm and indignation.

Since the war closed, the Legislature of Tennessee has issued and put upon Southern markets, about twenty five millions of indebtedness, the proceeds of which (it turns out upon investigation,) to the extent of nearly three-quarters, have passed into the hands of the "ring," the State receiving comparatively little or no benefit from this large issue of her bonds. No wonder that the citizens of the State refuse to recognize this debt in any way, being content—just to let it alone—making no provision for the payment of either principal or interest—not now, nor hereafter.

The shameless manner in which the finances of the honest "Old North State" (North Carolina,) has been manipulated, must, immediately, however, attract attention. A party of unscrupulous Northern politicians, aided by a few men, "native to the manor born," and, if anything, more depraved and disreputable than themselves, have bribed the Legislature, composed, it is said, largely of negroes and unprincipled whites, to issue about Sixteen Millions of what they call "Special Tax Bonds." Some ten or more millions of these bonds have been put upon this market, through the aid and influence of one or more so called prominent houses in this city, at a price ranging from 50 to 65 cents on the dollar—thus putting into the hands of the "ring" not less than Five Million of Dollars—not ten per cent of which has been spent upon the roads, nor for any public work or use in the State. The Presidents of the roads to whom were issued these bonds, in blocks, have been called upon by an alarmed and indignant people, to tell what they have done with this large amount of money. Instead of answering like honest agents, some of them have fled the State, and evade, in every way, all inquiries. The Legislature has at length become alarmed, and a halt has been hastily passed, restraining the Treasurer from paying another dollar of interest, either upon New or Old Bonds; also instructing the Attorney General to cause at once, a bill to be filed, to test, before the Supreme Court of that State, immediately, the constitutionality of the issue of the "Special Tax" Bonds. It is proper to say, that there is not a fair legal mind in the State, who does not say, that the entire batch of "Special Tax Bonds" is illegal and therefore worthless. The people are clamorous for this decision, and it is expected that the Supreme Court will so decide.

The language of the people of these States is to those of the North:

"GENTLEMEN.—Against every remonstrance that could be made, you have persistently insisted upon the right of governing us, by men thoroughly unprincipled and dishonest; it is these men whom you have placed over us that have perpetrated this great wrong. You have bought these bogus bonds from your friends. Now you can keep them, and we shall never question your right so to do."

THE SENTINEL AND ITS MISSION.

We are not much in the habit of noticing what is said of us, in the course of what we conceive to be our duty as a public journalist, but the following article from the Newbern Journal of Commerce, apart from the compliment paid us, which we duly appreciate, contains sentiments so truthful and appropriate to the present and past political condition of the State, that we depart from our usual custom in such cases and copy the article.

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL.

One of two of the so called Conservative papers, instead of employing their space and talents in attacking the corrupt administration of State affairs by the radical party, and its infamous tirgs, are heaping denunciations upon our valuable contemporary, the Raleigh Sentinel, and its editor, for his charging upon and holding responsible the guilty parties for the corruption and venality in public places every where to be found throughout the State. To Mr. Turner, of the sentinel, the people of North Carolina are indebted, more than to any other man, for the exposure of the many schemes inaugurated in Raleigh for the ruin of themselves and the State, and we desire to tender to him, in our own behalf, and the behalf of the people of Eastern North Carolina, that high meed of praise eminently due to his course in this respect. "Conservative" papers act in the interest of radicalism when they oppose that course. If they have any surplus ammunition to expend, the maladministration of the government—State and National—surely furnishes them subjects in abundance for the explosion of their idle gunpowder. Whatever may be the individual opinions of the editors of those papers regarding Mr. Turner, whatever may be their views of the course he pursues to gain the grand and final object—the redemption of the State from the leeches now sucking out her life's best blood—the people demand those opinions be stifled for the public good, and that every element opposed to radicalism and its flagrant abuses of power be worked, in one homogeneous mass, for its overthrow. Nothing can be gained by division among ourselves—everything may be gained by unity. Let us then, check our bickerings, and all shoulder to shoulder march steadily forward to the victory that awaits us in the not distant future.

Again, we express our approbation, and the approbation of the worthy people of this section, at the manly, unconcealed, straightforward course pursued by the SENTINEL in ventilating the rascalities of those who have dishonored, and proved false to the important trusts confided to their keeping, by a credulous but well-meaning people.

For the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C., Feb. 2, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor Sentinel:

DEAR SIR—In the Ridgeway Press, I see a letter or article signed Lewis H. Kittle. In this article the writer takes occasion to lug into it, the fact that the old county Court of Granville, in 1868, had levied a county tax of twenty thousand dollars, but does not pretend to explain, or give any reason for this extraordinary county tax for Granville county. Mr. Kittle was in possession of all the facts connected with this enormous tax. Mr. Kittle knew that in 1867 our jail was burned; he also knew that in 1866 '67 nearly every bridge in the county had been destroyed by freshets. Now let us see how the matter stands. It is true, the old county Court at May term 1868 levied a tax of twenty thousand dollars; seven thousand dollars of which was to rebuild the jail; orders to the amount of five thousand five hundred dollars, had been issued for rebuilding fifteen bridges. These two extraordinary items make the sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars leaving the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars for ordinary purposes. This amount includes three thousand dollars set apart for the poor of the county. When Mr. Kittle was looking up this $20,000 tax, why did he not look for the tax of 1867 levied by that same old county Court, when there was no jail to build and no bridges to build? If he had, he would have found it to be $8,441.00 (eight thousand four hundred and forty-one dollars). I suppose, this small matter is too insignificant to attract the attention of a man of Mr. Kittle's pretensions.

Let us go back and inquire something more about this $20,000 tax levied by the old county Court in 1868. The tax-payers may wish to know what has become of it. The further history of it is this: As was the custom of that old county Court, this tax was prepared by the clerk of that Court, and handed over to W. A. Philpott, then, Sheriff of Granville county. This good old Sheriff as was his custom, advertised to meet the good citizens of the county, at the usual places of meeting, to collect the said taxes. After having gone to two of these places, a notice was served on him, requiring him to hand over to Sheriff Moore his tax list, with all the money he had collected. This being such an unusual thing the good citizens of Oxford induced Col Edwards, to go with Sheriff Philpott, to Raleigh, to see if Governor Holden would not allow Mr. Philpott, according to custom in such cases, to collect the tax list, then in his hands, but all to no purpose. Our good old Sheriff was put in custody, until he should deliver the books and papers to Sheriff Moore. Well, Sheriff Moore received them, and the good people of the county, were then notified that he would meet them at certain named places, for the purpose of collecting the taxes. About this time, here comes Mr. Kittle with his army of Commissioners, and county Trustee, to see that the county finances should be well taken care of. Mr. Kittle tells his Sheriff, that he must pay all county orders drawn for the support of the poor, to the exclusion of all others. The county Trustee, by public advertisement forbids the Sheriff paying or even taking any county order for taxes. Is it surprising, that our people were perplexed, distressed and at their wits' end to know what to do in such a dilemma, for many held county orders, but had no money? After much consultation and delay, some determined to offer the State tax in cash and contend for an offset with the county orders for county tax. Things went on so for a time. In the Fall of that year, I think it was, I heard it said about the streets, that the Sheriff had returned to the commissioners over one thousand insolvent tax-payers in Granville, amounting to some $3,300. This amount was so very large, I inquired into the matter and found that the list contained about eight hundred negroes, and three hundred whites. All this time, black and white were complaining that they could get no money for work done on the jail. Some are not paid to this day.

Well, a new year has now come in and here comes Mr. Kittle again, with his army of Commissioners, to prepare a new tax list for the year 1869. They meet, and meet, and meet again, they sit, and sit, and sit again, and finally hatch a little tax of $23,000, to be paid by the poor citizens of Granville. Let a stop here and add a little before we proceed further. Mr. Kittle says the old County Court levied a tax of $20,000, in 1868, and that he and his army in 1869 levied another tax of $20,000, these two sums make $40,000. Mr. Kittle and his army of officers have been in power about eighteen months, divide this $40,000 by eighteen, and you will find that it requires under Mr. Kittle's administration, two thousand two hundred, and twenty two dollars per month to carry on the little government of Granville County.

Now this looks very large to us, who once, and not very long ago, carried on the same County Government for about one fourth of that amount. The good people ought and have a right to know how their hard-earned money is spent, I will tell all I know about it. Teh, I get from Mr. Kittle. Paid in support of the poor in the County $7,183, paid to Mr. Kittle, $724, to Thos. W. Pool, $411, to Thos. W. Hicks, $436, to Edward B. Lyon, $453, to William H. Puryear, Esq., $450, to John W. Bess, Clerk, $724, to Col. F. L. Hargrove, Attorney, $830, for preparing tax list, $1360, registering voters $479, and I am told the County Trustee was paid $900 on a compromise. All these little sums result, $18,326, take this amount from the $40,000, and it leaves $26,674. I suppose much of this balance has been paid to county orders. Now let's look a little into this poor house business. I understand there are now about ninety paupers out of the poor house and at the poor house under twenty, and the paupers out of the poor house cost about nine cents dollars per head, but I will put them at twenty dollars per head, and suppose the average number to be eighty-five, this will amount to fifteen hundred dollars, add to this amount eight hundred dollars so as to make eighteen months, and it makes two thousand four hundred dollars for eighteen months; this amount taken from the $7,188, leaves the sum of $4,788, for the support of the paupers at the poor house. I understand the number to be seventeen, but I will put them at twenty five, I divide this $4,788 by twenty five, and find that each pauper at the poor house costs the sum of one hundred and ninety dollars, about the price of board at a good hotel.

Mr. Kittle in the afore-mentioned letter says, his attention has been particularly called to the mass meeting in Oxford, and when asked what he thinks of a certain resolution his reply is, "I suppose that meeting was about the size of your hat and composed of the legal profession and ex-officials." I can think of but one way to account for the slight and untruthful way in which Mr. Kittle speaks of that large, intelligent and respectable meeting, and that is, by the odor which greets him when entering one of his meetings. If there had been a few black negroes near, Mr. Kittle and he had been asked the size of the meeting, in place of saying a "hat full," he would have said "all Africa is there," if his olfactories are not entirely blunted by constant contact with our colore l friends. This meeting thus so slightly spoken of was composed of such men as Judge Gotham, Col. Edwards, Col. Amis, Mr. Littlejohn, Dr. P. W. Young, Dr. Jno R. Hicks, Dr. W. R. Hicks, Dr. S. A. Williams, the Hesters, Crowses, Lyons', Gregorys', and such like men from all parts of the county—the Court room was nearly, or quite full. If this meeting was so insignificant in the estimation of Mr. Kittle, I would like to have some editor ask him what he thought of a certain other meeting held in the Court house recently, and presided over by Sheriff Moore! I will take occasion to say, it was the very first time I ever knew a Sheriff to preside over a political meeting.

As you live nearer the State House than I do, please step up there some morning, (if you can manage to get up early enough,) when the Legislature is all cool sober, and tell them that the punishment of whipping for crime is not abolished in Granville county. Some day last week the overseer of the Poor House, with a pistol in one hand and a rope and hickory in the other, seized a negro woman, and, after tying her, gave her forty lashes, cutting and bruising her most inhumanly. Since that time one of our townships, where there are two magistrates, one white and the other colored, the white magistrate inflicted one of the most unmerciful whippings upon his associate that was ever witnessed in this or any other county. This was the same negro magistrate that Mr. Kittle paid $7 50 for trying a State's warrant. Now, the good people of Granville don't care to trouble the Legislature any further than to protect the poor afflicted inmate of the Poor House from the cruelties of a tyrant. As for the townships and their magistrates, they may manage their own business in their own way.

Most respectfully,
P. A. A.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN PASQUOTANK.

At a meeting of a portion of the Republican party of Pasquotank county, held in the Court House at Elizabeth City, January 31st, 1870, Geo. D. Pool, Esq., was called to the chair, and M. V. B. Gilbert appointed Secretary.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be the expression of the views of the Republicans of the county upon the policy or impolicy of the sale of the State's interest in her Public Works.

C. W. Grandy, Jr., Esq., moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions bearing upon the subject.

The Chair appointed as said committee: Messrs Grandy, T. W. Cardoza, P. John, A. L. Jones and Hugh Kale, who, after retiring, reported the following preamble and resolutions—the chairman prefacing them with a few prominent remarks:

WHEREAS, An effort is now being made to sell the State's interest in her Public Works; and believing any sale at present, and under existing circumstances, would be highly detrimental to the interests of North Carolina; Therefore,

1. Resolved, That the Republican party of Pasquotank county, in Convention assembled, hereby express their disapprobation of any sale of the State stock in the public works of the State, unless the special tax bonds heretofore issued, and remaining unsold, and the proceeds arising from the sale of such as have been sold, shall first be brought in and surrendered to the State Treasurer, and the payment of the interest on those unsold suspended for the present. And should any sale of the said Public Works hereafter be made, the money arising from the sale should be applied to the payment and retiring of the bonds of the State, known as the "old bonds."

2. Resolved, That we think no effort should be made to withdraw the benefits of existing appropriations from the Works and Corporations for which they were legitimately made, nor to hinder their effective operation to the purpose for which they were designed; but that all necessary measures should be promptly taken to secure said Works and Corporations a faithful administration and application of such appropriations; and by this means, to protect the interest and welfare of the State and the people against all possible fraud or misapplication in the sale and management of the Bonds of the State.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted; when, after voting to publish the proceedings in the North Carolinian and other papers opposed to the effort alluded to in the preamble, on motion of Dr. John, the meeting adjourned.

GEO. D. POOL, Chairman.
M. V. B. GILBERT, Secretary.

New Ads.—M. Rosenbaum offers his entire stock of Goods at less than cost for cash only, from now until he removes into the store formerly occupied by Mr. D. C. Murray. He also wants those indebted to him to pay up by the 15th inst. See the notice.

Valuable city property for sale by W. H. Jones & Co., fine chance for investment.

N. C. Real and Personal Estate Agency.—Several days ago we inserted an advertisement of this corporation, under the new auspices and management of E. J. Kreis & Co., the issues of the charter, franchises, &c., of the original corporators. We refer those having connection with the Agency by purchase of tickets or otherwise, to the advertisement, for information in regard to plans for the future.

Before making any editorial notice of the advertisement, or the change in the management of the affairs of the Company, we took pains to inquire respecting the ability of those into whose hands the matter has passed, and on this point we are satisfied, namely, that they have the financial ability to carry out their pledges; our conviction is, also, that they intend to carry them out in good faith.

So far as the morality or legality of the business is concerned, we have nothing to say; it is a matter for the consideration of those who deal with them, either by the purchase of tickets, or putting property in their hands for disposal. The new management will soon make further announcements to the public through the papers, and by their agents, as to their futher plans.

J. D. Massey, of Johnston.—On Monday last we published some facts connected with a horse-stealing case in Johnston county, in which the name of J. D. Massey, one of the Governor's model J. P's., figured. The information on the subject was obtained from what we and his friends, Gov. Holden and the Attorney General, considered a reliable source—at least we so considered it. Squire Massey called at our office on Thursday last and stated that the facts we had received and published were false, and handed us a communication for publication setting forth his version of the affair. The editor not being at home, the locum tenens told him the matter would be submitted to the editor on his return. The length of Squire Massey's communication would have been an objection to its publication, if there were no other.

Before the matter was submitted to the editor for decision, however, Squire Massey wrote to the "Local" demanding, the insertion of his article, and threatened to hold somebody "personally responsible," and to prosecute under section 7, chapter 177 Public Laws of N. C., &c., &c. Now, we tell Squire Massey, that it is cruel in him to be frightening a nervous individual in this way, but as he has done it, why, let him "go on with his rat killing," for we'd see him cussed, jammed and crammed under the thickest bed of sand in Fayetteville street, Raleigh, before we'd publish his communication, and then we wouldn't do it, since he's got so humpish ouldered about it.

Plows.—We learn that Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., have procurred Steel Cotton Sweeps, made from the original patterns of David Dixon, Esq., of Georgia, they charge $5 for each, when stocked $7.

This firm is selling a large quantity of plows manufactured by themselves. They sell No. A. 9, 10, 11, and 50 plows at 2.50. Would it not be well for farmers to club in each neighborhood and order together so as to get the freight cheap. Mitchell, Allen & Co., have the agency for the Foster Cotton Planters, and every variety of agricultural implements. dlm

Catarrh.—The origin of Catarrh is in most cases A neglected Cold which can be relieved by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches," by soothing the irritated and inflamed membrane extending from the nose to the throat. For Coughs and Throat Diseases the Troches are of great service.

SEND FOR HIM.

Dennis Hanes, twice convicted of larceny by a jury of Orange, had the good luck to have the verdict of the jury as often set aside by the ex-President of the League, Judge Tourgee. At the last Court Tourgee ordered the Solicitor to take the personal recognizance of Dennis to the next Court, Dennis failed to come and was called out. Mr. Parks, whose shoe store was broken open by Dennis, lost some $300 worth of shoes and boots, he has to employ council to prosecute Dennis. If Solicitor Bulla does not ask the Judge for a special capias for Dennis, to have him at the next Court, we hope Major York, Mr. Park's Attorney, will. We wish it done, not so much to punish Dennis, as to see to what extent this unprincipled ex-President of the League will carry his audacity in shielding rogues.

SOMETHING WRONG.

A subscriber from the West says the Standard goes regularly to his post office while he has received only two numbers of the Sentinel since November. He says something must be wrong; we think so, too.

The postmaster of this city was walking most of last year; he walked himself into an indictment. There was no mail in Hillsboro' Thursday night; the Hillsboro' mail being taken to Charlotte.

A friend in Lincolnton sent fifteen dollars by mail, three months ago, the money has never reached us yet. Some Radical postmasters certainly think it no sin to steal from a "rebel."

Our papers are regularly and carefully mailed and put in the Post office or on the train regularly and in good time. We have missed getting out in time but once in six months, that we remember.

The Sentinel is as unwelcome in some localities as a preacher would be in a gambling hell, and hence, we have no doubt, that unfair means are sometimes used to suppress it.

Rather Salty.—When Mr. Welker's bill was under consideration on Thursday, "relating to the bonds issued to Railroads in 1868 and 1869," he moved to strike out of the preamble these words: "Whereas, the people of the State, believe the several acts of Railroad incorporation, to have been hastily and inconsiderately made, without sufficiently guarding the interests of the State" &c.

This was a little too much. The admission was too candid. It was a confession, of the inability of the Republican party to control the affairs of State. The Senator from Jackson opposed the motion to strike out, alleging that the people were entitled to this admission, and as the Senate had on the first and second reading agreed to the preamble, he hoped the motion would not prevail. But this truth was struck out. The people however, know it is a truth, and will hardly forget it on account of his being stricken out of the preamble.

For the Sentinel.

It is to be hoped that measures will be taken to test the constitutionality of the special tax bonds. If a mistake has been made let it be squarely admitted and squarely rectified. In this way, and in this way only, can the credit of the State be restored.

Can it be constitutional to invalidate or damage a lawful contract?—to permit the water course to be tapped above my mill, and the water that I paid for, years ago, to be turned off from my use in favor of a new rival? The design of the constitutional convention, in its special tax provisions, was to protect the credit of the State by prohibiting such farther appropriations as might prevent the State from honestly meeting her existing obligations. The constitution requires that a sufficient special tax be raised to meet any new liabilities—the presumption being, that the old liabilities are met by the general revenue. But if the general revenue is insufficient for this purpose—if the old liabilities cannot be met, because of deficient revenue, then special taxing for new liabilities is out of reason and out of order. The constitutional order, and time for special taxing is after the prior obligations have been met, and satisfied. Until this is done all special taxing is insufficient, inadequate, unconstitutional.

COMMON SENSE.

A Judge of Northern Birth Compliments Virginia Juries.—In discharging the petit jurors of the Hustings Court yesterday, Judge Bramhall took occasion to eulogize them for fairness and impartiality in the discharge of their duties. He said that he was convinced after an experience of months that that unfortunate class of persons—the freedmen in our midst—risked nothing in throwing themselves for justice upon their white fellow citizens. Now that he was probably on the eve of severing his connection with the judiciary, he felt it his duty to place on record this tribute to the people of his adopted State, and wherever he might go he would carry with him a lively recollection of the disposition shown by those Virginians with whom he came officially in contact, to act without prejudice against race or color.

Judge Bramhall is we believe, a native of New York, a judge by military appointment and is Radical in politics. We have not a full report of the remarks, but they were to this effect.

Irritable Invalids.

Indigestion not only effects the physical health, but the dispositions and tempers of its victims. The dyspeptic becomes, too, in a measur demoralized by his sufferings. He is subject to fits of irritation, sullenness, or despair, as the case may be. A preternatural sensitiveness which he cannot control leads him to misconstrue the words and acts of those around him, and his intercourse even with those nearest and dearest to him is not unfrequently marked by exhibitions of testiness foreign to his real nature.—These are the mental phenomena of the disease, for which the invalid cannot be justly held responsible, but they occasion much household discomfort. It is to the interest of the home circle, it is essential to family harmony as well as to the rescue of the principal sufferer from a state not far removed from incipient insanity, that these symptoms of mental disturbance be promptly removed. This can only be done by removing their physical cause, a derangement of the functions of the stomach and its allied viscera, the liver and the bowels. Upon these three important organs Hostetter's Stomach Bitters act simultaneously, producing a thorough and salutary change in their condition. The vegetable ingredients of which the preparation is composed are of a renovating, regulating and diuretic character and the stimulant which lends activity to their remedial virtues is the purest and best that can be extracted from the most wholesome of all cereals, viz: sound rye. No dyspeptic can take this genial restorative for a single week without experiencing a notable improvement in his general health. Not only will his bodily sufferings abate from day to day, but his mind will recover rapidly from its restlessness and irritability, and this happy change will manifest itself in the demeanor to all around him.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Dr. Sam. Bard, late of the Atlanta Era, has been nominated as Governor of Idaho.

Senate.—In the Banking privilege bill, Sherman moved an amendment that the bill should not interfere with the free circulation of papers within twenty miles of the place of publication; no action.

House.—The Committee on militia affairs were ordered to enquire what members had offered for sale appointments to the Military or Naval Academies.

Mr. Bingham, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to relieve B. F. Shober, Representative from the 4th N. C. District, from taking the "iron clad" oath, and that he be admitted to his seat upon taking the oath to support the Constitution &c. &c.

Paine made the point of order that this was not a private bill, but it affected the organization of the House. The Speaker over ruled the point, Paine appealed from the decision, but on motion of Mr. Cox, the appeal was laid on the table.—Paine said the matter was now before the Election Committee and this proposed to relieve Mr. Shober of his disability &c.

Mr. Bingham said the Judiciary Committee had investigated the matter and was satisfied that Mr. Shober labored under no disabilities imposed by the 14th amendment. He (Shober) had been a member of the N. C. Legislature and could not therefore take the test oath, but this course had always been that of a friend of the Union.

Dawson said that Shober was not subject to any disabilities under the 14th amendment.

The Chair, in answer to inquiries stated that the passage of the bill would not prevent the election committee from further examining Mr. Shober's credentials and reporting upon his right to a seat.

Arnell moved to lay the bill on the table; the motion was adopted yeas 89 nays 79

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE IN THE TOWN OF SALEM.

AS EXECUTORS OF JAMES HALL DEC'D the undersigned will sell to the highest bidder, on Thursday February 24th the valuable real estate of said deceased; consisting of one of the most desirable business stands in the town of Salem, situated on Main Street, on the North-West corner of the public square, facing the Salem Female Academy. Said property is a new, and commodious brick building, with business stand and dwelling combined.

Also, a large two story frame building on Main street likewise a good stand, business having been conducted therein for many years.

Also, a highly valuable business stand in the town of Winston, on the N. W. Corner of the Court House square. This property is a new frame building and is deemed one of the best business stands in Winston.

Also, sixty acres of land, situated within ½ of a mile from the Court House, having all the necessary buildings thereon. All of this property is deemed highly valuable from the fact that the N. W. N. C. Railroad, rapidly progressing will give new life and impetus to trade in this section of the State. Parties from the East desiring to locate in a flourishing and healthy portion of the State in a highly moral and industrious community, with the advantages of excellent schools, will perhaps never again meet with so favorable an opportunity for the purchase of desirable real estate, as that now offered.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all sediments or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell when burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To protect consumers, the "Astral" Oils packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice prejudice by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

R. Lebrecan, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the produce much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid ex tract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION,

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infections, going at once to the fountain-head of diseases. It extirpates or Tumors Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Worst of Kindly, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villanous diseases. Vaccination this was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both he and he are so sorely afflicted. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye, A Rosy Glow to the Cheek, A Ruby Tinge to the Lips, A Clearness to the Head, Brightness to the Complexion, Buoyancy to the Spirits, And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the Kidneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Hooper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5 Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

PLINY FREEMAN, | President.
LORING ANDREWS, | Vice President.
J. A. HADENBURGH, | 2d Vice President

D. W. COURTS, " Solicitor.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES H. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to wish its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Conscious of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor boldly for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Two Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may pass and repass the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,94
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,397 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
